Bliss Cruise™

WAYNE'S CORNER

Hi Everyone - let's look at a number of things happening behind the scenes on Bliss Cruise, as we want to enhance your experience.

The best thing about two sea days to start the charter is that you will have multiple opportunities to make connections, such as:

- SPEED DATING in STUDIO B
- MEET & GREETs for every sexual or cultural interest
- Meet couples on the BLVD (Deck 5) all day long
- Join a "SHARING TABLE" for breakfast, lunch or dinner
- Go to a seminar or presentation
- Visit a Travel Agent sponsored bar or lounge

As we get into the middle of the charter and into Tortola and St. Thomas, there will be multiple opportunities for great excursions. The offerings do fill up fast, so book early.

There is a new specialty restaurant on board, on Deck 4 across from SCHOONER BAR called HOOKED. The RAW OYSTERS and CLAM CHOWDER are great! This spot will be popular so it is recommended to call in advance for a reservation.

We get asked all the time, WHY DO WE CHARGE FOR SEMINARS and how does the program really work on a ship. Well, the presenters are not paid by BLISS and they also have purchased a cabin to be here this week. The nominal amount charged ensures that those who want to attend and listen to the topic will be present. In the old days, couples would come on Day 1 to the BLISS HELP DESK, pick up FREE TICKETS to about 10 seminars and if a playing opportunity arose, would not show up for the seminar. The amount paid for the seminar/presentation is split between the cruise line (they provide the space), BLISS (we provide team support staff) and the presenter for professional services.

Don't forget to put down on paper your idea for a great 7day itinerary - you could win $250.00.

HAPPY CRUISING Wayne & Haiyan

ARE YOU STILL SHY?

HERE IS WHAT TO TRY

By: Miss Lynn, Owner TheSwingerCruise.com

I surveyed over 276 Experienced Cruisers to find out what ONE thing would make any couple enjoy their Bliss Cruise more.

The overwhelming answer? Stop being SHY!

Of course, that is easier said than done. So we dove into the question and found a few fabulous answers! Try one or try them all!

Report back and let us know which works best for you.

Play Up Being Nervous like a Newbie.

Strategy #1...Why fight it? Use the shyness to your advantage. Michael & Linda are a couple where both partners are shy. They say sometimes they have a drink to take some of the nerves away but mostly they just rock the shyness.

Here is how to do it: The basis of this strategy is to be transparent. Let people know right away you are shy or a newbie. Everyone has been there before and sharing that little piece of information can be the difference between them thinking you are aloof or stuck up v.s. the truth that you are just nervous.

Michael told us that if people can just help keep the conversation going long enough for him to get to know them then everything works out fine. But it's hard for him to bring up questions at first.

Greet Them & Go (or Meet 'em and Mash!)

Sam & Kathy are experienced cruisers and they recommend using the awesome activities on the ship, like Meet & Greets to find people with similar interests. They also share that on a ship with SO much happening that it can be hard to keep a set "date." Too many factors got in the way of keeping things on time.

Here is how to do it:

They recommend going to a meet and greet with the idea in mind that they are open to play. Or schedule a date to start off at a bar or hot tub. Better yet if you find a couple you click with it could be best to 'grab them and go have your fun.' There is no time like the present!

Put it in Writing!

Having trouble telling someone what you want? Why not put it in writing!

Having a business card with your info and a message like 'We are interested, just shy' can take all the guesswork out of getting to know another couple. Cards are also a great way to help people remember your names, faces, interests, contact information. Although cards require advanced planning we always recommend having a few printed.

Another great suggestion came from our friend Nellie. She says on past cruises her husband combines putting it in writing with the great idea of having fun in the afternoon. He brings a sign to pool parties that says

"We're into afternoon delight!" Seriously! Be on the lookout for that!

Don't have a sign?

Why not have the body painter put a little message on your 'assets'?

Pretend You are a PRO or Act Like the Admin

The final strategy that experienced cruisers recommend is to simply ACT like you aren't shy. Since you have costumes, theme parties and thousands of people who don't know you are shy, why not 'Fake it to Make it.'

How this works:

"Ask yourself how would an experienced couple act?" Get a clear picture in your mind. How would they walk, dance, flirt? What would they say?

Next step: Do that!

Dan & Melissa recommend themes, themes, all the themes! After all, dressing up is one way you can step outside your shyness and be someone else for a little while. I know that acting not-shy can be tough. If you can't pull that off why not actually become a 'pro or admin'?

Simply ask your favorite travel agent if they need a helping hand. At TheSwingerCruise.com we always have volunteers help us with handing out lanyards for room keys or other promotional items. You get a name tag, official t-shirt and a way to help other cruisers. 'TA-DA Instant Authority.' It's a great way to meet people and have a structured role to play.

Let the structure of the ship help you!

Speaking of travel agents, they also give you a great way to interact with your friends. If don't have a card you can always tell new friends to meet you at your travel agents pre-dinner event.

Corina says don't miss the nightly meet-n-greet sponsored by your agency. If you don't have cards tell your new friend to meet pre-dinner drinks there every night. "It was great when new friends came to find us."

Still Need More Ideas?

Lynn is the Newbie Expert on Bliss Cruise and has sailed on over 34 lifestyle cruises. She's been teaching her Swinging 101 class to hundreds of happy new couples for over 6 years.

Join her in the Theater on deck 3, Saturday Day, 2 at 12:00 noon or meet up with her in R Bar on the promenade at TheSwingerCruise.com desk.■

LADIES-ONLY PLAYTIME

DAY 3 from 4 - 6 PM

DAY 6 from 1 - 3 PM

STAR LOUNGE, DECK 5

Bliss Cruise provides an opportunity for bisexual or bi-curious ladies to connect with each other. With so many passengers on the ship, this is an extremely popular way to identify ladies looking for the same journey you are seeking. To help expedite connections, a Meet and Greet is held before each play session. We'll have our favorite DJ to mix it up and bar services will be available. Your journey continues with an optional play should you desire. Nevertheless, you'll make connections and that makes a happy passenger. The special session goes down starting on Day 3 in Star Lounge from 4 - 6 pm, and a second session on Day 6 from 1 - 3 pm. (Sorry, NO GENTS permitted)

Hall Pass Meet & Greets
Check your Cruise Compass for scheduled activities

Hall Pass Meet & Greets are designated for passengers who have permission to meet others and potentially play with one or more passengers without the presence of the partner. Look for the Meet and Greets listed in the Cruise Compass daily for your opportunity to make a connection. Come pick one playmate, or gather a few of them and go have some fun!

HOW TO HOST AN ORGY ON A CRUISE SHIP

By Mike & Lilly of Diretto
Lifestyle Skills

HAS THIS EVER HAPPENED TO YOU?

You're at one of the many fine Bliss Cruise Meet & Greet, Pool Parties, Theme Nights, or just plain random hallway conversations; and you've managed to run into a cool group of sexy people. You all seem to just click right away and you think to yourself "Wouldn't it be great if we were all naked?" - but you just don't know how to make it happen!

Well if this sounds like you, Mike and Lilly Diretto, you're friendly Bliss Cruise Approach Coaches, are here to give you a road map to spontaneous orgy-land... at sea!

First off, take a look at your group... Is this the first time you're all meeting or does everyone already know each other? Has anyone played with anyone else in the group? Even just one person with a prior connection can sometimes help put others at ease. Be sure to properly introduce everyone to each other if you haven't already done so. Names, length of time in the lifestyle, and full or soft swap are the basics.

Next, you want to make sure everyone has playtime in mind. You can do this in many ways of course, but we prefer the direct approach (Diretto means direct after all)! If you've already been chatting and flirting for a while, don't hesitate to speak up and voice your desires. Most likely there's at least one other person that feels the same way and they've been waiting for someone with bigger balls to say something.

For some of you, this may feel scary, abrupt, or overly forward - but it's not! You're on a sex cruise! Not only is it expected behavior, but the group will respect you for speaking up and saving everyone time and effort.

If you read the room wrong and folks are NOT interested in playtime, you'll be happy to know that sooner rather than later! You may feel slightly embarrassed but it's a small price to pay to reclaim the time you would have otherwise wasted.

Here's a tip to help smooth this part out: start talking about some playtime you've already had. It could be from the ship or any other time. You don't have to share the details or names but talk about how things got started, when you knew playtime was going to happen, and your favorite or most interesting parts of the experience. As you do this pay attention to the faces of the people in the group. Do they look turned on by your story? If so, then it's a safe bet that they will be open to a sexy suggestion.

Don't forget! Once you've taken the temperature of the group and found it to be at least decently warm, SOMEONE still has to pull the trigger and suggest group playtime. In the Lifestyle, we get what we ask for (as long as you ask enough people), so ask!

At this point you might start to worry less about yourself, and more about the comfort level of the other people in the group. What if some people are soft swap and others are full swap for example? What if some people don't want to play with everyone? The more people involved, the harder it becomes to have everyone on exactly the same page. So how do we handle that?

No worries! There's an incredibly useful concept specifically designed for just this type of situation, and it's called a "Welcome Circle". We could write a whole other article on this concept alone, but we'll summarize it for you here.

BEFORE the clothes come off, have a brief discussion with the entire group and ask each person to share the following information: #1 what kind of play are they comfortable with? #2 who are they comfortable playing with? #3 are there any fantasies they want to play out? And #4 is there anything that they definitely do NOT want to happen?

You can of course add your own questions and variations, but the most important part is that the discussion happens early enough that nobody is wondering what is or is not okay in the heat of the moment. We've found that hurt feelings and awkward moments are much easier to avoid when you're not feeling pressured. For example, it's a lot worse for a man to have his bare penis emphatically turned away in the middle of the playroom, than for him to hear a polite "no thanks" while he's still wearing pants (and what woman enjoys turning someone down like that anyway?).

It's important to let the group know that it's totally ok if people have different comfort levels or if someone doesn't want to play with everyone else.

The reason we've heard most often for people sitting out of group sex was that they felt pressured to go along with whatever the rest of the group was doing. Letting people know this isn't necessary long before the play starts is your best chance at keeping everyone involved.

Group play can be fun for people of ALL comfort levels because there are plenty of ways to be involved in the scene without full swapping. Someone can be using toys, or getting lube or water for the group, and if consent was given it's always great to have a photographer get those sexy shots!

On the other hand, if everyone playing with everyone else is the specific experience you're looking for, we suggest consciously preselecting your group and planning ahead for the event. If you're trying to create this spontaneously it might take you a while to find the right random group.

Excellent! You've now got your sexy group primed and ready for action! So where do you go from here? - Literally! Fortunately, on Bliss you have multiple options for places to play! We'll start with the playrooms.

Bliss Cruise offers a variety of playrooms for you to enjoy, each with their own sexy charm. The conference center on deck 2 is a great place for group play with it's giant central area. We've seen some crazy sex choreography in that room! If you come during off-peak hours you can sometimes have multiple mattresses to yourself. If your group is looking to create a truly unique Bliss Cruise experience, you'll need to check out the exterior playroom on deck 13 forward where you can play under the stars and enjoy the sea breeze! (We're serious about the breeze! This deck may be closed due to wind. Bring a robe in case it's chilly!).

But what if it's 3 AM and raining and the playrooms are all closed? How many people can you actually fit comfortably inside your stateroom?

Well... from our (ahem) extensive testing, it's no trouble to fit your average six-some into even an interior cabin. An eight-some would be possible but it might be a tight fit.

For any group larger than 8 we recommend a larger room, a room with a balcony, or a suite (keep in mind there is no balcony play anywhere close to land!).

Of course you'll want to head to the largest room in the group, but it's a good idea to be prepared to host yourself if you're trying to have a spontaneous orgy. You'll want to make sure your room is set up for group play. It's going to get HOT, and we're not just talking about how it looks.

If you know you'll be having company over, it may be in your best interest to turn on the AC in advance. Don't be surprised if you steam up the room and make the walls sweat with all the action going on.

Having water and towels on hand is crucial to keep your group comfortable. If there are any squirters in the room we strongly suggest putting down extra towels (ask your porter in advance) and putting your comforter in the closet. There are plenty of extra sheets, but not a lot of replacement mattresses and comforters.

There's one final tip for successful spontaneous group play, and that is to STAY TOGETHER! Do NOT let people run off on their own before you arrive at the final playtime destination. Take everyone to the meeting spot FIRST, then if people need to use the bathroom or run back to get toys they can do so then.

If you split up before the final location there are a million things that can prevent your group from reforming - like a last second venue change - but a man or woman will always rush back to a room full of sexy naked people waiting on them to return with a vibrating strap on. ■

TORTOLA, BVI

Powdery white-sand beaches, lush green mountains, and sheltered, yacht-filled harbours characterize the island of Tortola, the BVI's largest and capital island. The past of the West Indies and the present-day BVI mix and mingle with ruins existing alongside the luxury resorts that draw visitors from around the world.

Swim or stroll the secluded palm-shaded white sands of dozens of beaches, including Apple Bay, Brewer's Bay, Smuggler's Cove, Long Bay Beach, Elizabeth Beach and Josiah's Bay Beach to name just a few.

Step away from the sand just long enough to discover Tortola's history with a visit to the 1780 Lower Estate Sugar Works Museum, Fort Burt, Mount Healthy Windmill, Callwood's Rum Distillery, J.R. O'Neal Botanic Gardens, Old Government House Museum and VI Folk Museum.

ST. THOMAS

While the beaches and ocean are beautiful, there is one thing that really sets St. Thomas apart - shopping. Browse through the shop-lined streets of Charlotte Amalie and find out why St. Thomas is called the "duty-free shopping capital of the world."

Beyond the glitz of its famous shopping district, St. Thomas enchants with a fascinating history and natural scenery. Explore the island's diverse heritage in Charlotte Amalie, or splash your way around at vibrant reefs or relax on a gorgeous beach.

Take a ride on Skyline Drive and enjoy a breathtaking view of St. Thomas Harbor. Check out Coral World Marine Park, where you can touch sea stars at the touch pool or explore the mystery of life in a mangrove lagoon off the Coastal Trail. Take a tour of key island landmarks to view the lovely vistas, enjoy spectacular shopping and explore the stunning Magen's Bay Beach. No diving experience is required for a guided underwater exploration off St. Thomas with The BOSS - a Breathing Observation Submersible Scooter. Blast out of the water and soar like Ironman on a flyboard.

LANGUAGE OF THE LIFESTYLE

By Doug & Barb, Erotic Adult Travel

PLAY: Sexual activity and/or physical interaction of a sexual nature with someone other than your partner.

FULL SWAP: "For Those Who Go All The Way" An exchange of partners in which the participants have agreed that intercourse is a permissible and desirable outcome when "playing" with others.

SOFT SWAP: "For those not sure how far they want to go or have established a Rule not to go all the way" This type of play generally includes kissing, touching, stroking, and/or oral sex — just about anything short of penetration. This is also often referred to as soft play, as "swapping" partners is not necessarily an integral part of "soft" activities.

UNICORN: "Not the fairy tale myth with one horn" Refers to a single female.

BONDAGE, DOMINATION, SADO-MASOCHISM:

This covers a wide range of different activities, from playful teasing and gentle spanking to the application of intense pain. There is an entire subculture devoted to individual and group exploration of BDSM, with the practice as varied as those who enjoy it. Still Curious? There is a playroom on board referred to as a dungeon or fetish room exclusively devoted to BDSM, with introductory demonstrations. You can watch, volunteer or participate.

HALL PASS: "Isn't a pass to have sex in the hallways" It is Permission from your partner to engage in sexual activity without your partner being present.

BARE-BACKING: "Not save a horse ride a Cowboy" It is Penetration sex without the use of a condom.

EXHIBITIONISM: "Could it be a Porn Star?" It is engaging in sexual activity while being watched by others Voyeurism: "Not a Spy Game" It is gaining sexual pleasure by watching others who are engaging in sexual activity.

VANILLA: "Nothing to do with Ice cream" A term used to describe those who are not in the lifestyle, for example, "This will be a lifestyle takeover cruise with no vanilla guests onboard."

COUPLES SPEED DATING:

"Thinking Orgy?" Actually no, each couple is given a minute or two to introduce themselves and determine if there's any interest in spending more time together.

It's a great way to meet dozens of couples in a short period of time and, to make sure you don't run out of things to talk about, there's usually a list of prepared or suggested questions to take the pressure off trying to "make conversation."

ONBOARD MEET & GREETINGS AND SEMINARS:

One of the best ways to meet others on the cruise! They are listed in the Bliss Program & Cruise Compass, to include days and times!

Meet as many couples as you can by going to these meet and greets and seminars-and then practice your newly learned techniques.

Remember, it's one of the main reasons most couples are on the cruise — to meet others. The subjects will cover a wide range of topics for Newbies & Advanced. ■

ADULT PLAY ROOMS

PLAYROOM ETIQUETTE: NO MEANS NO!

PLAYROOMS & GENERAL RULES:

ALL PLAYROOMS: Day and evening play space is provided by Bliss Cruise. All play areas listed below detail evening hours and general rules. For day play hours, please refer to your Cruise Compass for designated activities.

Superior Service is provided in ALL PLAYROOMS: An elite team of lifestyle host couples provide operational maintenance of the playroom; greeting guests, providing fresh towels, changing sheets, sanitizing areas after each use, distributing condoms, lube upon request, and more. If you need something, just ask a Bliss Cruise team member dressed in blue shirts.

NO means NO and once NO is indicated by any passenger, it means you must suspend any further negotiation for the duration of the event with the person who told you NO. Unless you are involved in a play session, you are also not permitted to hover over anyone playing.

No drape peeping. No drape peeping. If any party closes the drape of a mattress area, please respect their privacy. Also, Playroom mattresses are for playing, not lounging. During busy hours, a mattress-hog rule is in effect. If play fails to commence or has concluded, passengers may be subject to a time limit by the Bliss Cruise Playroom Manager.

There is a playroom designated for couples-only; the Conference Center. In this playroom, passengers are NOT permitted to enter unless the male and female are present. Once any person of the couple departs the playroom, the other person of the couple must vacate the playroom.

In all other playrooms, ALL PASSENGERS are permitted and there are no restrictions to be a couple. For couples who are new to the lifestyle and until you are comfortable with your established boundaries, Bliss Cruise recommends starting your play in the Conference Center limited to couples-only. If you wish to try another playroom, that's fine too, so long as you accept that the other playrooms are not couples-only.

All playrooms are designated for PLAY, not conversation. Please keep conversation volume to a minimum or you may be asked to leave by the playroom manager.

Passengers may be waiting their turn for play space. Upon conclusion of your playtime, kindly gather your personal belongings and exit from the play space in a respectful manner noting that play may still be happening next to you.

For maintenance, Play is considered concluded once all participants on designated mattress leave the mattress. No mattress-hogging permitted. Also, Play beds may not be reserved in advance.

CONFERENCE CENTER PLAYROOM

10 PM - 3 AM | DECK 2 | COUPLES-ONLY

HOUSE RULES: This playroom is couples-in and couples-out. This means that if any part of the couple leaves the playroom, the other partner is not permitted to stay. No outside drinks permitted; a water station is provided.

WHAT TO SAY WHEN YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT TO SAY

By: Miss Lynn, Owner -TheSwingerCruise.com

Does your mind go blank when it comes to keeping a conversation going?

Here is a simple formula designed to keep the conversation going until you are ready for what comes next.

Ask an open-ended question. Here are 5 conversational questions that are super on a Swinger Cruise:

- What do they want to do most this week?
- What do they like about being on Bliss Cruise /Being in the lifestyle/ being a nudist?
- What the one thing that would be just beyond their comfort zone on this cruise?
- What do they have planned tomorrow that they are excited about?
- What other vacations are they excited about?

Discover: After they tell you, ask a question about their answer that goes a little deeper. Even if it's only to clarify something about what they said.

React: this is your chance to respond! Use something uptempo. 'That's fascinating!', or 'I bet that was a blast!'. This shows you were actively listening, and that you share excitement, amusement, joy, etc. with what they care about too.

Relate: Find something in your past that is similar to their topic. A quick story, comment about a friend who does something similar, or a memory you have of a time you had a similar experience. All conversations have lulls. It's to be expected.

Don't let these lulls go on too long. The best way to overcome these gaps is to start by revealing a positive emotion you're experiencing:

- I'm really excited about tonight's theme party/ chance to try the dungeon for the first time / meeting new couples (like you.)

- I'm so happy they were able to create events like this cruise...
- I'm grateful the embarkation/luggage delivery/ traffic was really smooth. I was worried I'd have troubles...
- I'm really impressed with the way everyone here seems to be so energetic...

Secondly, direct the conversation to what's happening onboard. Stick with what's happening now, avoid religion, politics, your kids, your physical ailments and your jobs... and you should be back on track. Still Need More Ideas? Lynn is the Newbie Expert on Bliss Cruise and has sailed on over 34 lifestyle cruises. She's been teaching her Swinging 101 class to hundreds of happy new couples for over 6 years. Join her in the Theater on deck 3, Saturday Day 2 at 12:00 noon or meet up with her in R Bar on the promenade at TheSwingerCruise.com desk. ■

TOPLESS TRAVEL - JOE & SHELLEY

Joe & Shelley have been in the lifestyle since they met 23 years ago. They have hosted countless house parties, previously owned Exquisite Affairs (a luxury hotel takeover group), had a partnership with a swingers club and now are the Owner/Operators of Topless Travel, one of the largest volume lifestyle travel agencies in the world.

By combining their passion for traveling the world with years in the lifestyle, and their partnership with the owner of SLS.com, they started Topless Travel in the fall of 2010. Topless Travel maintains a full time staff; RJ in Sales, Linda as Cruise Counselor, Robyn in Customer Service, Kairee as Admin Hostess, Jay in accounting and of course our lovable Entertainment Directors, Marc and Carley.

Today they are selling thousands of lifestyle cruise cabins and many weeks at lifestyle resorts. In addition, they create incredible boutique 'bucket list' vacations for lifestyle couples to destinations around the world; like their signature African Safari and their newest adventure on the National Geographic Antarctica Expedition in December 2019. Meet Joe & Shelley, along with the rest of the Topless Travel staff, daily in the Windjammer.

CASTAWAYS TRAVEL - JAMES & CHAMPAGNE

Jim & Donna, aka James & Champagne, met at the Houston Airport because Jim needed a pen. They started FOX in 1984 & today they have 3 divisions FOX, Castaways & BLISS.

A lot of Castaways clients have become FOX clients too. The personal touch is Castaways' key ingredient in doing a great job.

What they like most is getting to meet wonderful people many who have become great friends & guests wanting to have FUN! Per Champagne, "Guests book the BLISS cruise to EXPLORE EVERYTHING!"

Some of them are 1st time cruisers; some have cruised before but probably not on a cruise that allows them to explore what they & their partner may want or not want to do. In our 35 years of meeting thousands of people, we've learned the word "FUN" has many different definitions, and we don't care what your definition of FUN is, just that you plan to HAVE A LOT OF IT when you travel with FOX, Castaways and BLISS....

... until the next cruise that is!" BTW, they married at Gate B10 in Houston 1989 and, in their words: "Are traveling through the rest of their lives Together!"
